

Name: _____

Date: _____

The Writing Process

Across

1. a complete legal ending of a marriage

5. disturbance, violence, unrest

11. a point or line at which something is divided

14. to fasten one to another

15. describes the purposes for writing

16. a person who attends something or someone

17. to go with as a companion

18. relating to emotion

Down

2. something that is hard to put up with

3. a specialist in therapy and especially in methods of treatment

4. the state of being related or connected

6. not settled not resolved or brought to a resolution

7. one of the parts into which a closed space is divided

8. of or relating to location of living and nonliving things

9. the order in which things are put in

10. extreme strength or force

12. the act or result of making judgment on

13. direct responsibility for care and control