

Name: _____

Date: _____

The urinary system

Across

- 2. Hemolytic anemia
- 3. Inflammation of the kidney
- 5. One or both kidneys are enlarged and have many blisterlike sacs containing urine
- 11. Excessive intake of sugary foods
- 14. When urine becomes extremely concentrated
- 16. When the bladder is unable to expel urine

17. Bleeding in the urinary tract

18. Painful urination

19. When ADH is not released, huge amounts of very dilute urine to flush from the body day after day

20. Inflammation of the bladder

Down

- 1. Large volumes of urine are excreted
- 4. Urinary tract infection
- 6. Liver disease

7. Hypoaldosteronism

8. Physical exertion, or pregnancy

9. Abnormally low urinary output that is less than 100 ml/dy

10. Abnormally low urinary output between 100 & 400 ml/dy

12. Enlargement of the prostate gland

13. Unable to voluntarily control the external sphincter

15. Inflammation of the urethra