

Theater Arts Terms

Across

2. The person that learns a part in case the primary actor can't perform
 6. The sound or line that lets an actor know to begin
 10. When the actor looks at the audience
 16. The time between Acts where people can take a break
 17. The placement of actors on the stage and the movement of the actors
 18. The people that work backstage
 20. The smaller divisions of a performance
 22. When the audience knows something that the characters don't
 23. The place where the performance takes place
 24. When the actors freeze during a performance
 26. The area where the audience sits
 30. The picture of the scene
 31. Turning diagonally so that the actor is open to the audience
 33. The large divisions of a performance
 34. A story that is sad

35. The words that the actors say; the story that is told
 37. The person who creates and teaches the dance steps to the performers
 38. The area on the sides of the stage where people wait to go on stage
 40. The facial and body movement that helps create a feeling
 41. The person who writes a play
 42. The person that manages everything backstage
 43. The background that creates the pace that the performance is taking place in
 44. A long speech done by one actor

Down

1. The articles of clothing that an actor wears
 3. The placement of actors between upstage and downstage
 4. The placement of actors according to high and/or low.
 5. The sides of the stage that can't be seen by the audience
 7. The story

8. The time between one scene and another
 9. The items that an actor interacts with on stage
 11. The performance hall
 12. The place where actors hang out in before and sometimes during the performance.
 13. A show that is humorous
 14. When a situation in which actions have an effect that is opposite from what was intended
 15. The person who picks the show, chooses the cast, has the overall vision
 19. The walls of the scenery
 21. A Performer
 25. The front of the stage
 27. The final bow that the performers take when the performance is done.
 28. To tear down and clear the stage after a performance is done
 29. All of the actors in a performance
 32. The group that watches a show
 36. A place to purchase tickets to a performance
 39. The back part of the stage