

Name: _____

Date: _____

Theatre Types and Terms

Across

2. when an actors makes another actor turn so he is no longer facing the audience

3. Stage type characterized by a frame around the outside of the stage

5. actions by the actors on stage like picking up a book or opening a letter onstage.

11. part of the stage that is furthest away from the audience

13. Type of stage where the audience is seated on all sides of the stage

14. Sheet curtain at the back of the stage used for lighting effects.

15. hand and arm movements and facial expressions that help express and idea or emotion

17. Short vertical curtains on each side of the stage

18. Part of the stage closest to the audience

19. the movement of the actors onstage

21. Curtain at the mid stage that is able to move on and off stage

Down

1. Large Curtain at the front of the stage that hides the stage from the audience

4. Stage type where the stage thrust into the audience that is seated on 3 sides.

6. Part of the stage that immediately off stage right and left

7. Type of theatre that can be converted into Thrust, arena or proscenium.

8. Short Horizontal curtain hung with tormentors

9. Part of the stage in the middle of the stage.

10. part of the stage that is not scene by the audience

12. Part of the stage in front of the Main Curtain

16. the directions actors and directors use on stage

20. common theatre term said to actors to remind them to open up to the audience