

Theatre Voc.

Across

- 2. clues given to the audience about upcoming events in the play
- 4. a character speaking alone on the stage
- 10. major divisions in a play
- 11. words an actor says
- 13. person who writes a play
- 17. sides of a stage
- 19. subdivision of an act in a play
- 21. character who causes the main character problems
- 24. point of highest dramatic tension in a play
- 25. the main character around whom the action revolves
- 30. person who organizes action, tells actors where to sit, stand, walk, how to act a part, etc.

- 31. opening of a play where characters and problems are introduced
 - 32. copies of the play the actors use
- Down

- 1. play in which a good man dies or meets a terrible end
- 3. bit of humor injected into a series play to relieve tension
- 5. characters that remain the same
- 6. problem in a play
- 7. how the conflict in a play is solved
- 8. moves an actor makes
- 9. characters that change somehow within the course of the plot
- 12. words spoken by the actors during the play
- 14. speech in which an actor usually alone speaks his or her thoughts aloud

- 15. characters with many traits
- 16. place where the action of a film or video takes place
- 18. lines whispered to the audience or another character on stage
- 20. place where the action takes place
- 22. something the audience knows that a character on the stage does not
- 23. character that leaves one to his or her downfall or destruction
- 26. message within the play
- 27. person who describes what is happening as it happens
- 28. Items used by the actor
- 29. people who watch the play