

Name: _____

Date: _____

Theories

Across

1. concerned with what society "owes" its members

15. we all attach meaning to our communications with others within the context in which the interaction takes place,

16. advocacy of social, economic, and political equality

17. views political structures as benefiting only the elites, who have access to power and resources

18. hostility towards those who are perceived inferior status

Down

2. social worker acts as the expert and takes the lead in developing change strategies

3. attacks by a dominant group on a weaker group

4. Cultural Framing Perspective

5. social behaviors is best understood in terms of tension between groups over power and allocation of resources

6. use the skills of community members to approach problems from the local level

7. process of creating and perpetrating a condition merely assuming it is true

8. society is structured to maintain its stability as a whole; the overall good for society

9. understanding the complexities of culture and how individual lives are influences and groups are treated

10. allows people to deny owning uncomfortable feelings

11. views political structures as benefiting only the elites, who have access to power and resources

12. we construct our reality based on our experiences

13. all humans have the right to live fulfilled lives

14. community members are empowered to be their own change agents through protesting, lobbying,

Word Bank

Authoritarian Perspective

Social Justice

Cultural Framing

Mobilizing Structures

Political Opportunities

Feminist Perspective

Conflict Perspective

Distributive Justice

Locality Development Model

Displaced Aggression Perspective

Vicious Cycle Perspective

Cultural Perspectives

Social Constructionism

Interaction Theory

Social Action Model

Social Planning Model

Projection Perspective

Functionalist Perspective