

Name: _____

Theories & Theorists

Across

9. begins with puberty and ends around age 18-20.

10. malignancy of too much guilt.

11. the way an infant uses their skills to explore objects in their environment.

Down

1. shameless, willfulness that can lead an individual to act, or jump into things, without proper consideration of your abilities.

2. seeing things from one point of view: their own!

3. positive balance of autonomy and shame and doubt

4. a thing that represents something else.

5. Piaget's term for "learning."

6. the ability to be close to others.

7. putting things back in order.

8. the idea that quantity remains the same despite changes in appearance.