

Things At School

Across

4. Taking information directly as it is without quoting it's original creator.
7. Doing all the work in one day.
8. Mental or emotional strain from a harsh circumstance.
11. Leaving things to the last minute.

13. A tool to help you remember what you learned in at school.

Down

1. Used to help study. Question on one side, answer on another
2. Reviewing what you have learned throughout a unit.
3. A project that counts for a large part of your mark.
5. Work to be done outside of school hours.

6. A large test of what you have learned throughout the entire year.

9. An effective way to study, from a book.
10. A large task where you display a certain topic. Usually done at the end of a unit.
12. Makes you remember all the information you learned in a unit, requires studying.