

Name: _____

Third Quarter Project

Across

2. was a Confederate General best known for starting the civil war with his attack on Fort Sumter
5. led the First Corps of the Army Of Northern Virginia is considered one of the most capable generals on either side
7. was a Confederate Cavalry Commander known for his speed and elusiveness
9. fought and battled in five wars. He was mortally wounded at age 59 during the civil war at the Battle of Shiloh
12. was a Union general in the Civil War and a career army officer. He suffered defeats at Gettysburg and Chancellorsville but at Western Theater his reputation went back up
13. is best known for surrendering Fort Sumter
14. was a hapless leader of the Union Army, suffering one defeat after another
16. fought brilliantly from First Bull Run to his death at the battle of Chancellorsville from friendly fire
18. commanded armies in Tennessee and the Trans-Mississippi Theaters
19. was the commander of the Army of Northern Virginia
22. was not only a soldier but also a lawyer and eventually a politician for the state of Massachusetts. He still ranks as one of the, if not the, most controversial political generals during the Civil War
24. was an army officer who is better known for the defeat at First Battle of Bull Run

25. was a college professor and eventually a brigadier general and brevet major general for the Union army during the Civil War
27. was reputed for his aggressive and bold commands, a reputation which continued in battles despite his physical disabilities
28. was a US Army officer for his entire career and eventually a nominee for the office of President of the US in 1880. He served in the army for a total of four decades and is considered a war hero for his Gettysburg service
29. led the Union Army during the later years of the civil war, and with his victory at Appomattox Courthouse, effectively ended the civil war
30. was a Union general and an army officer throughout his career. He is known for his association with Ulysses S. Grant and for his fast ascent to major general
- ## Down
1. was one of five men to ever be promoted to a five star rank of the general army. Eventually became the governor general for the military for the Philippines in 1900
3. led the Army Of the Potomac during the early years of the civil war
4. fought in many battles and his best known for taking Atlanta followed by his brutal by effective "march to the sea."
6. was an officer of the Union Cavalry during the Civil War and one of his most important roles took place at Gettysburg. is known for selecting the right field of battle during Gettysburg

8. was an innovative cavalry commander, and was the only general on either side who began as a private
10. was a successful Confederate General who fought and died during Pickett's Charge at the Battle of Gettysburg
11. started life as a brutal killer, leading pro-confederate units on attacks against Union forces
15. was a famous cavalry commander known for his reconnaissance
17. was a United States Army officer who served in the civil war and Indian wars, meeting his end at the Battle of Little Bighorn
20. was a confederate General best known for commanding the "Light Division," and fighting ably with his commander Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson
21. is best remembered for his futile and bloody assault on Cemetery Ridge On Day 3 of the Battle of Gettysburg
23. was a general for the Union during the Civil War and a career army officer. He is mostly known for the defeat at Second Battle of Bull Run in the east, after which he was sent to Minnesota
26. led the Army Of Mississippi and Tennessee from Shiloh to Chattanooga