

Thyroid Function Test Quiz

- | | |
|---|-----------------------------|
| 1. What is the first test to order when querying thyroid dysfunction? | A. Hyperthyroidism |
| 2. What can elevated TSH indicate? | B. Thyroid peroxidase |
| 3. What can normal T4 but elevated T3 levels indicate? | C. TSH |
| 4. What can low TSH indicate? | D. Medullary thyroid cancer |
| 5. Which component of a TFT is typically tested which only indicates hyperthyroidism? | E. Ultrasound |
| 6. In autoimmunity, what exactly do thyroid antibodies attack? | F. Hyperthyroidism |
| 7. What disease/condition can raised calcitonin levels indicate? | G. Radioactive iodine |
| 8. A thyroid uptake test scans for the uptake of what? | H. Hypothyroidism |
| 9. There is a UK screening programme for hypothyroidism in all newborns. Where is the blood sample typically obtained from? | I. Heel |
| 10. What is an example of a non-laboratory test which can be performed to identify a thyroid gland pathology? | J. T3 |