

Tissues and Body Systems

Across

1. What is the largest organ of the body

12. What supports, protects, and binds together other tissues of the body

13. What is a collection of similar cells that perform a particular function

14. what enables breathing

Down

2. what performs the function of producing children

3. What controls the steady delivery of the blood

4. what is a protective lining on cavities of the body and surfaces of the organ

5. What contracts and moves the various parts of the body

6. what carries messages through the central nervous system

7. What are groups of organs acting together for one or more functions

8. What protects the body from disease

9. what forms the physical foundations of the body

10. what carries messages through the central nervous system to control and coordinate all bodily functions

11. What covers, shapes, and supports the skeletal system