

To Kill a Mockingbird

Across

3. A racist man who only cares about the case because he has the opportunity to put a black man in jail.
 7. A woman who shows love to everyone and everything and will always do the right thing for others.
 9. The racist group of people that put Tom in jail.
 10. The love and secret shared between Boo and the kids.
 14. The object that Boo gave to the kids as a symbol of thanks and love.
 16. Represents that there are many things that happen to you that you may not realize until way later in life.

17. The woman who is basically the kids' mother

18. He symbolises a mockingbird.

19. The person who isn't afraid of anyone or anything he is growing the most in life and in personality.

20. Proof that it isn't impossible to do anything and that any person can accomplish whatever they put their mind to.

Down

1. Symbolises diversity and power.

2. The dangerous game that almost killed the kids.

4. Atticus wants good things for people even if it goes against society.

5. She is very shy in court because she doesn't want the truth to come out.

6. The women who barged in the Finch's lives

8. A brave little girl who believes in the good of everyone and everything.

11. Represents hard times in life and shows new beginnings.

12. The relationship between the kids and Boo at the end had a lot of this.

13. They symbolise a constant theme to show that Atticus and his family are different.

15. Proof that Boo Radley isn't all that bad.