

To Kill a Mockingbird CH:21-23

Across

- 2. a written rule or regulation
- 3. to travel regularly to and from a place
- 6. the clearness of a person's speech
- 9. not willing to change an opinion or decision
- 11. to give, do, or allow (something) in an unwilling way
- 12. make awry
- 13. a feeling of being sorry for doing something bad
- 15. the quality of being believed or accepted as true

- 16. feeling anger because of something that is unfair
 - 17. the belief that what will happen has already been decided
 - 20. a fellow worker
 - 22. done in a quiet and secret way to avoid being noticed
 - 24. to cause to suffer emotional strain
 - 25. to roll about in deep mud or water
- Down
- 1. art of disposing and maneuvering forces in combat
 - 4. not easily excited or upset

- 5. a feeling of anger or displeasure
- 7. to cause (someone) to feel very happy and excited
- 8. very bad or dishonest
- 10. to become less severe
- 14. the record of votes that were made by people
- 18. showing or feeling regret for something done
- 19. not willing or eager to do something
- 21. of, relating to, or resembling a wild beast
- 23. expressed or understood without being directly stated