

To kill a mocking bird

Across

2. reverence for god or devout fulfillment of religious obligations
 5. bitter in nature or in speech/behaviour
 8. to relieve or ease someones pain.
 9. to imply denial to something
 12. study of the divisibility of whole numbers, theory of numbers

13. a person whose buisness is trade
 14. having or showing manners
 15. A movable article of personal property

Down

1. the state of being irritated or annoyed
 3. having a vocabulary composed primarily of short, simple words

4. expressing a strong displeasure at something considered insulting or offensive
 6. clothes worn in a particular profession
 7. A pharmacist
 10. easily provoked to anger
 11. any of numerous shrubs or flower clusters belonging to a particular group

Word Bank

vexations	solicitor	azaleas	irascible	indignantly
acrimonious	courteous	assuaged	piety	arithmetic
monosyllabic	chattel	apothecary	contradict	habiliments