

Toddler Assessment

Across

- 2. how you view yourself
3. when a child releases anger by screaming, crying, kicking, etc, it is called a ____
6. when children play together it is called ____ play
10. doing the opposite of what others want
12. absorbent underpants that can be worn in the place pf diapers
18. the ability to put oneself in another's place
20. thread made from chemicals
22. general categories of objects and information
23. learning by watching and copying others

- 24. when young children gradually learn to get along with others
25. children aged 1-3, begin walking unsteadily

Down

- 1. tasks suitable for a child, given their age and interests
4. children aged 3-5
5. when something is easily burned, it is ____
7. a child's fear of being away from familiar people or the normal environment
8. people who think about their own needs and wants are ____
9. learning that results from being taught is ____ learning
11. the use and control of the large muscles

- 13. when children play near, but not with, each other
14. the use and control of the finer muscles
15. the muscles that control elimination
16. the skillful use of the hands and fingers
17. personal cleanliness
19. competition between siblings for parents' affection and attention is sibling ____
21. unplanned learning is ____ learning