

Topic 2 - The collection and processing of forensic evidence

Across

1. contextual information informs perception process
2. People look for evidence that would validate their beliefs
4. Bias where you already have an expectation of what the result will be, due to prior knowledge or information from the initial expert
5. A method of reducing bias that involves removing irrelevant information about the case so it cannot affect the decision
7. 1.The Madrid Bomber

Word Bank

bottom up processing cognitive bias
 sequential unmasking
 Dror Et Al

Brandon Mayfield selective attention blood hall and player

overconfidence bias
 top down processing expectancy bias

8. the detail in the print informs the perception process
 9. Parts of the prints that are ambiguous are ignored , when a close call has to be made
 10. Two studies conducted in 2005 and 2006 to test the effects of cognitive bias on emotions
 11. The fingerprint expert thinks they're always right , even when faced with contradictory evidence
- Down
3. The study involving fingerprint experts and £50 bank notes
 6. physical evidence that can be collected from a crimescene