

Name: _____

Date: _____

Tort Law

Across

3. The more intentional one is in committing a tort, the more _____ they are.

7. A person who commits a tort is called a _____.

8. in the tort of _____, there is no requirement to prove harm.

10. A set of factual elements that entitle a plaintiff to a remedy is called _____ of action.

12. Willful _____ is a form of negligence.

13. _____ of care requires the court to compare the actual behavior of the wrongdoer with the projected behavior of a reasonable person.

16. To classify intentional torts, we look to _____; to a person, chattels, land or business.

17. To succeed in a tort claim, duty of care, breach, harm and _____ must be present.

19. There are _____ essential elements of tort liability.

20. _____ occurs when when the defendant's action fall short of a standard of care.

23. A reasonable person is a/an _____ person.

24. An _____-contractual duty of care is a duty of care that arises outside the terms of a contract.

25. Professional _____ is a subcategory of negligence.

Down

1. Liability for the principals for the torts of their agents is called _____.

2. To classify tort, we use _____.

4. _____ is the intentional creation of the apprehension of imminent harmful or offensive contact.

5. _____ is categorized as a miscellaneous tort.

6. _____ is not an intentional tort.

9. Harm is only efficacious to a legally recognized _____.

11. _____ intent is intent to harm another party that results in harm to third party.

14. Among recklessness, vicarious liability and transferred intent, the middle level of intent is?

15. A visual map used to conceptualize intent in tort is called _____ map.

18. There is _____ notable difference between intent and intention in tort law.

21. A tort of broken _____ does not currently exist.

22. The tort of _____ can occur both an intentional tort and as negligence.

Word Bank

recklessness	Standard	Conspiracy	mind	Extra	blindness	Assault
cause	imagined	causation	battery	interest	intent	harm
tortfeasor	Negligence	conscious	four	nuisance	heart	Breach
Transferred	vicarious	no	malpractice			