

Traditional Indigenous Music and its Modern Day Impact

Across

- 3. Indigenous tradition that revolves around music and dance to bring the community together, renew old friendships and make new ones.
- 4. Gord Downie addressed _____ about Indigenous issues at his band's concert.
- 6. _____ instruments has allowed Indigenous artists to blend traditional music with other styles such as reggae.
- 10. A Tribe Called Red derives a beat from a traditional song called _____.
- 14. Type of Inuit music that was originally considered a type of breathing/vocal game. _____ singing.
- 16. Derived by A Tribe Called Red _____ Pow Wow Drum.
- 17. Dubstep is mostly _____, making the message more powerful.

- 18. The modern Indigenous band that topped the charts in 2012 is called A _____ Red. (2 words)
 - 20. The Grassdance song originates from a tribe located in the _____.
- Down
- 1. Modern Indigenous artists _____ to create new sounds and music while connecting to traditional roots.
 - 2. Indigenous music was _____ in Western Society for a long time.
 - 5. The main distinction between different tribe's music is the _____. (2 words)
 - 7. Modern Indigenous music is powerful since it combines tradition with _____-Indigenous music, creating music that _____-Indigenous people are more bound to listen to.
 - 8. The drumbeat represented the _____ of the Land.

- 9. "All Indigenous music is _____."
- 11. Music is a good way to raise social _____.
- 12. Compared to other platforms, music addresses political issues in a relatively _____ manner.
- 13. Modern Indigenous music is not limited to one genre, as shown by Buffy Sainte Marie's _____ music.
- 15. By incorporating their traditions through modern day music, Indigenous artists are _____ their roots.
- 19. Music is inherently political, making it a form of _____.