

Transport, Diet and Digestion

Across

8. Long a word
 10. Bacteria: "Just when you thought it was safe to go back in the plasma" Enter Phagocyte!
 13. This is the deficiency disease caused by a lack of vitamin B (needed for the enzymes in respiration).
 14. When cells divide uncontrollably and form a dense mass of cells.

Down

1. These two moist membranes prevent the lungs rubbing directly on the ribs and therefore prevent damage.
 2. A semi-flexible connective tissue found in animals which helps support certain structures.
 3. What kind of music do elves listen to?
 4. A series of muscular contractions that force a ball of food along the oesophagus and intestines.
 5. Who delivers presents to baby sharks at Christmas?
 6. Smoke damages the wall of the alveoli leading to reduced surface area for gas exchange.
 7. The most "handsome" boy in the class?
 9. The channel that leads from the mouth to the stomach.
 11. Small muscle-like hairs on the surface of cells that brush pathogen filled mucus out of the lungs.
 12. The cancer causing component of smoke.