

Name: _____

Date: _____

Trey's Crossword

Across

1. Wood from a broadleaved tree
3. Wood from a conifer tree.
5. A characteristic of a material when it pulls apart instead of cracking.
10. A metal that does not contain iron.
12. Compounds made artificially by chemical reactions.
13. Any product that comes from physical matter.

14. When you change something from stock material to a finished product

15. A metal that contains iron.

Down

2. Plastic made from plant or starch based materials instead of oil.
4. A metal made by combining two or more metallic elements
6. When you change something from raw material to a stock material

7. The science of manipulating materials on a molecular scale.

8. A resource capable of being replaced by natural processes.

9. A characteristic of a material when it breaks cleanly.

11. A material you can treat or process so as to make suitable for reuse.