

Twenty years of DISH fun with HLCCA!

Across

2. The HLCCA's first conference exclusive in 1999 (2 words)

3. Another name for the P86 Fiesta Embossed Fan mugs

4. The 2004 HLCCA conference location

10. A line of non-HLC vintage pottery often mistaken for Fiesta (especially the disk pitcher)

12. A very early Homer Laughlin shape. Also the name of a famous bridge. (2 words)

13. Terra-cotta colored clay line produced in the 1950's

14. One of HLCCA's first embossed teapot ornament colors

16. HLCCA's newest decal (3 words)

19. Total number of years the HLCCA has been in existence

20. Tiny cups used to serve coffee/espresso

Down

1. A "tropical" design produced on both contemporary HLC and Fiesta

5. A special vellum glaze with a greenish hue (3 words)

6. A Betty Crocker line, reminiscent of a vintage Mexican design

7. Vintage Red's "Twin"

8. One of the two P86 Gray colors produced

9. The name of the newest Fiesta color

11. A vintage Fiesta shape often confused for a sugar bowl (2 words)

15. A "Rootbeer" colored glaze

17. HLC's dinnerware line with the "pointy" handles

18. A delicate HLC line with elegant, round handles