

Name: _____

Date: _____

Types of Communicable Diseases

Across

2. This disease can be contracted by the Aedes mosquito.

3. This is the common name for influenza.

6. Most communicable diseases are contracted due to poor _____ practices.

11. When open drums and useless tires in one's yard acquire water, it can promote the hatching of _____.

13. This disease can be contracted by drinking contaminated water.

14. Cholera is caused by a living organism from the monera group known as _____.

15. AIDS is communicable disease caused by a _____.

Down

1. Acute Conjunctivitis is a communicable disease in which the membrane surrounding the eyelid becomes inflamed/infected. The common name for this disease is known as _____.

4. This disease weakens the immune system and destroys white blood cells (CD4 Helper Cells). It becomes harder for your body to fight off infections.

5. This type of medication is used to kill bacteria.

7. The dog scratches at _____ it hosts on its body. This is known as a parasitic relationship.

8. Antibiotics can be used to treat _____ poisoning.

9. This disease can be contracted by the Anopheles mosquito.

10. Salmonella is a disease caused by a bacteria. It is usually contracted by people who consume _____ food.

12. Malaria, Dengue, Yellow Fever, Zika and Chikungunya is caused by mosquitoes which transmits the disease. Therefore, mosquitoes are known as _____.