

Name: _____

Types of Government

Across

3. a government in which one person decides how the government functions and what the laws are

6. a type of government in which people are completely subject to one ruler who has all the power

7. The document King John of England was forced to sign in 1215, limiting the power of the monarch and ensuring the rights and privileges of the people

8. a form of government in which the citizens elect representatives whose powers and responsibilities are defined by a constitution

10. government in which a king or queen serves as head of state

11. government in which the people decide what kind of society they will have and what laws and services they want

12. a government that has both a legislative body elected by the people and a king or queen

Down

1. a form of government where citizens elect representatives to their legislature and the executive branch of the government is accountable to the legislature

2. a form of government in which the people elect representatives to run the government and make decisions on their behalf

4. a type of government in which citizens vote on policies and laws

5. a form of government in which only a few people rule

9. the highest law-making branch of the government in certain countries

Word Bank

parliament

direct democracy

democracy

constitutional democracy constitutional monarchy representative democracy

totalitarianism

oligarchy

Magna Carta

dictatorship

parliamentary democracy

monarchy