

Name: _____ Date: _____

Types of Infection Control

- | | |
|---|---------------------------------|
| 1. Enforces safety and health standards in workplace | A. EPA |
| 2. To protect human health and to protect the environment | B. Very Best Friend |
| 3. Lowest level of infection control | C. Quaternary Ammonium Compound |
| 4. Eliminates bacteria, virus and most organisms on non porous items | D. Sanitation |
| 5. Highest level of infection control that kills all bacteria | E. Heat autoclave |
| 6. Steps taken to prevent the spread of infection (gloves, masks, safety glasses) | F. PPE |
| 7. What disinfectant requires an EPA registration number in california | G. UV light |
| 8. A type of sterilizer not approved in California | H. Chemoclave |
| 9. A pressurized, steam heated vessel that sterilizes via high pressure and heat | I. Disinfection |
| 10. Sterilizes via high pressure, high temp and water, alcohol, and formaldehyde vapors | J. Sterilization |
| 11. Nickname for Quats, fights virus, bacteria, and fungus | K. OSHA |