

UNIT 4

Across

1. debate over states rights versus the absolute power of the federal government

2. south carolina declared the 1828 an 1832 tariff bills null and void and threatened to secede from the union

6. Nativists opposed immigration in order to protect the interests or native born american citizens

7. the belief that national interests should be placed ahead of regional concerns or concerns of other countries

8. The era of common man

9. 5th president

10. the european powers should stay out of affairs in the western hemisphere

11. Andrew jackson and john quincy adams has to go to the house of representatives to see who will be president

12. name given to the 1816 tariff by John C. Calhoun

Down

3. created in order to stabilize currency and hold government funds

4. the act of placing the interests of one region over the good of the country

5. decision that ensured the federal government had the power to regulate almost everything that crossed state lines

Word Bank

Gibbons v odgen Hayne webster debates monroe doctrine
 second national bank

tariff of abomination james monroe election of 1824 sectionalism

nationalism nativism
 south carolina rebels
 Andrew jackson