

US History

Across

- 6. agreements established between nations to provide military assistance to each other in the face of aggression
- 11. police action undertaken by the United Nations in an attempt to prevent an invasion of South Korea by North Korea. The US supplied a major portion of the troops in this conflict
- 13. the alliance of nations established in 1949 for the purpose of mutual defense, now includes approximately 15 nations from Canada to Turkey
- 14. the art of negotiation between different nations
- 15. the build up of military weapons between the US and the Soviet Union
- 16. the name given to relations between the US and Soviet Union after WWII characterized by tensions and suspicion

- 17. an international peacemaking organization established after World War II
 - 18. a term often associated with the interrelationship or independent nature of economics and politics between nations through the world
 - 19. term associated with Joseph McCarthy who led to research for communists in America during the early 1950s
 - 20. a policy which promised military and economic aid to nations threatened by armed minorities or outside groups
- Down
- 1. the two periods of time in which Americans feared the growth of communism
 - 2. US policy following WWII attempting to prevent the spread of communism in other areas of the world
 - 3. idea that when one Asian nation fell to communism, other neighboring nations would also fall

- 4. a method in which small groups use a hide, hit quickly and hide again tactic to create havoc on their enemy
- 5. a policy stating that the US would defend the Middle East nations against Soviet aggression
- 7. the agreement among the delegates from 50 nations which created international peacekeeping organizations
- 8. the longest war in which the United States was involved which was fought in Southeast Asia
- 9. a plan of economic assistance and recovery for Western Europe formulated by General George Marshall
- 10. the imaginary separation between the West free Europe and Communist Eastern Europe
- 12. industry that relies upon advanced machinery that uses computers, automated robotics or other highly technological means of production