

Name: _____

Date: _____

Underground Railroad

Across

3. a plant (such as cotton or tobacco) that is grown and can be harvested for profit

5. the power to do what you want to and not be controlled by another

8. a large area of land where crops are grown and usually with a large, elaborate house on it where the plantation owners and their families live

9. something that is owned by a person such as land or personal belongings

10. a native or naturalized person who owes loyalty or allegiance to a government and is entitled to its protections

Down

1. slave states that did not secede from the United States

2. to make a difference in treatment or favor based on something other than individual merit

4. to forbid something

6. to do away with something

7. a person without freedom who is owned by another and is made to work for free