

Name: _____

Unit 11

- |   |                  |
|---|------------------|
| 1. to close off or keep people or supplies from going in or out   | A. chant         |
| 2. to sing; to recite in a tone that varies only a little or not at all   | B. toxic         |
| 3. to give up all hope, lose heart  | C. lance         |
| 4. to raise or lift up; to increase in position or rank; to cheer up; to improve culturally, intellectually, or morally                           | D. despair       |
| 5. beyond the usual or expected; highly unusual or rare   | E. extraordinary |
| 6. brave, noble, or larger than life; involving extreme effort  | F. heroic        |
| 7. a long, metal-tipped weapon used by knights or soldiers on horseback; any sharp, pointed instrument that resembles such a weapon               | G. blockade      |
| 8. a person on an assignment, often of a religious nature; someone sent by a church to a foreign land to teach religion and do charity work       | H. missionary    |
| 9. having no meaning or effect  | I. reflect       |
| 10. to throw back, as heat, light, or sound; to give back an image of, as a mirror; to make apparent, show, or demonstrate; to think deeply about | J. site          |
| 11. a location, scene, or place where something was, is, or will be   | K. pointless     |
| 12. poisonous or deadly   | L. elevate       |