

Unit 1

Across

- 8. The art and science of making maps
- 9. A set of numbers used to represent location
- 11. The study of the world

Down

- 1. How humans adapt, modify, and depend on their environment
- 2. A map that tells a story and gives information about specific topics
- 3. one of two types of geography, covers culture, economics, and governments

- 4. A map that can be used to find absolute location using coordinate systems
- 5. lines that are vertical and slide east to west
- 6. Horizontal lines that climb north to south
- 7. One of two types of geography, studies the natural world
- 10. When a cartographer changes the real world to accomodate a map