Name: _____ Date: _____

Unit 1 Computer Science

Across

2. A set of instructions or code for executing a task or operation

8. Recording how you solved a problem

9. software that has no copywrite or editing restrictions

11. Program that replicates itself by modifying other computer programs and inserting its own code

12. Gathers information about a person to send to another entity to cause harm

13. Provides data or services to other computers or clients

14. A legally registered symbol or word

16. Using someone else's work and passing it off as your own

17. A public license that gives sole right to the inventor for a period of time

Down

1. Knowing right from wrong and acting accordingly

3. Cross-platform language, works on Windows, Macs, or linux

4. Free of charge software, may be copyrighted

5. Malicious software that causes you to pay to gain access to your own computer or software

6. Data storage for long-term computer memory

7. A port used to gain internet access

10. Legal rights granted by a government office to protect a creative work

15. Short-term memory for a computer