

Name: _____

Date: _____

Unit 1 TT- A1 and A2 questions

Across

2. What type of tourism is it when you visit a place where a disaster has happened?
3. What type of tourism is it when you discover places that relate to a country's history?
4. What term is used to describe people who visit places within their own country?
7. What is the business travel term given to describe when large gatherings take place, where specialists from different industries get together.
10. What term is used to describe people who are from the UK, who travel to another country for a holiday or other type of visit?
11. What does the 'C' standard for in the business travel acronym MICE?
14. What type of visitor are you if you only take a day trip?
15. What does the 'I' standard for in the business travel acronym MICE?

17. What is the business travel term given to describe the frequent getting together at a place, face to face to discuss issues or projects?
18. How many types of travel are there with regards to purpose?
19. What term is used to describe those people who travel to our country, the UK, from another country?
20. What type of tourism is it when you combine a holiday with a charity activity?
21. What does the 'M' standard for in the business travel acronym MICE?
22. What does the 'E' standard for in the business travel acronym MICE?
25. What does VFR mean for a type of leisure travel?
26. What is it called when some travel and tourism companies cater for specific markets?

Down

1. What is the main type of leisure travel?

5. What is a person who takes one or more over night stays called?
6. What type of tourism is it when you combine a trip with a conservation activity?
8. What type of tourism is it when you go on a school trip?
9. What type of tourism is it when you do lots of outdoor activities?
12. What type of tourism is it when it coserves the environment?
13. What type of tourism is it when you visit a spa?
16. What is the business travel term given to describe when people are offered travel as a reward for good performance in business or to persuade customers to buy something?
23. What is the business travel term given to describe general activities such as awards evenings or product launches?
24. How many types of tourism are there?