

Unit 1 Vocab

Across

1. The scientific study of organisms in the ocean or other marine bodies of water.

6. A vehicle that is operated remotely.

8. North and south from the equator.

9. The intellectual and practical activity encompassing the systematic study of the structure and behavior of the physical and natural world through observation and experiment.

10. An artificial body placed in orbit around the earth or moon or another planet in order to collect information or for communication.

11. HOW nature works

12. The study of the ocean and the structure of its floor.

Down

2. The numerical value of an object.

3. North and south from Earth's pole.

4. An instrument for measuring time, especially one designed to keep accurate time in spite of motion or variations in temperature, humidity, and air pressure.

5. Physical characteristics of an object.

7. A three-dimensional representation of a person or thing or of a proposed structure, typically on a smaller scale than the original.

13. Tracks your location.