

Unit 1 Vocab

Across

2. term for the President as head of the administration of the Federal Government.

3. oath taken by the President to issue executive orders

4. all matters not directly connected with the realm of foreign affairs; everything occurring inside the country.

11. power of the President to issue executive orders

13. an official postponement of the execution of a sentence.

14. the profession, activity, or skill of managing international relations, typically by a country's representatives abroad.

15. when a presidential candidate chooses a running mate who can strengthen his chance of being elected.

17. a formal agreement between two or more sovereign states.

19. a nation's relationships with other countries.

20. the power to reduce the length of a sentence or fine for a crime.

21. scheme by which a Presidential vacancy is filled.

Down

1. term for the President as the ceremonial head of the United States, the symbol of all the people of the nation.

5. A large, complex administrative structure that handles the everyday business of an organization.

6. term for the President as commander of the nation's armed forces.

7. term for the President as architect of public policy and the one who sets the agenda for Congress.

8. the officials in the executive branch of a government and their policies and principles.

9. term for the President as the main architect of foreign policy and the spokesperson to other countries.

10. an unwelcome person; used to describe recalled diplomatic officials.

12. the exclusive power of a President to recognize (establish foreign diplomatic relations with) foreign states.

16. term for the President as bestowed with the executive power of the United States.

18. Presidential advisory body, traditionally made up of the heads of the executive departments and other officers.