

Name: _____

Date: _____

Unit 1 Vocabulary Part 2

Across

2. Uncamamined surface material close to an area where physical evidence has been deposited

6. the scientific study of the structure and diseases of teeth

7. the hardening of body muscles after death

8. are carried out so that every conceivable piece of information that is available can be gathered in order to help the authorities build a case that will - hopefully - be water tight upon going to court

9. a person who sees an event, typically a crime or accident, take place

10. consisting in systematic observation, measurement, and experiment, and the formulation, testing, and modification of hypotheses

11. a small portion of a substance that conforms to the specification for that particular material. It is used for evaluating other samples

12. Actual tangible evidence that can be touched and picked up that is relevant to the case

Down

1. a formula for determining how frequently a certain combination of characteristics occurs in a population

3. discoloration of the skin in some dependent body areas following death as a result of blood cell destruction

4. draft representation of all essential information and measurements of a crime scene This sketch is drawn at the crime scene

5. the measurement and analysis of potential toxins, intoxicating or banned substances, and prescription medications present in a person's body