

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Unit 1 Vocabulary Quiz

- | | |
|--|---------------------------------|
| 1. Long-standing practices, traditions, or customs that regulate a group. | A. Federalist government system |
| 2. The behaviors and beliefs characteristic of a particular group. | B. Cultural landscape |
| 3. The study of the spatial characteristics of the world's land and people. | C. Geography |
| 4. An area distinguished by unique physical and human characteristics | D. Location |
| 5. Government where power is placed solely with the ruler and their appointees, and there are no limits imposed on their authority. | E. Unlimited government |
| 6. A spatial area of land that is unified by a common characteristic, such as political unity, linguistic unity, or common climate patterns. | F. Communist economy |
| 7. Government where power of authority figures is restricted and all citizens, including all authority figures, must obey the laws. | G. Limited government |
| 8. An exact point on the earth's surface. | H. Place |
| 9. A characteristic, such as language, beliefs, food, or customs that is shared by a group. | I. Unitary government system |
| 10. Economic system characterized by freedom for consumers and producers. | J. Free enterprise |
| 11. Economy in which the government owns and operates large-scale companies for the benefit of the public | K. Culture trait |
| 12. Economy in which the government controls all production and distribution of goods and services. | L. Culture |
| 13. The physical qualities that reflect the culture of a particular place. | M. Region |
| 14. Government characterized by a constitution that divides power between a central governmental authority and smaller regional subdivisions of government, such as states or provinces. | N. Institutions |
| 15. Political system characterized by a national government that performs all governmental functions and limits the powers of regional governments. | O. Socialist economy |