

Name: _____

Date: _____

Unit #1

Across

1. A group of three places in a number usually separated by a comma.
7. A symbol used to compare two numbers when the first is less than the second.
10. The way a number is written with words or said aloud.
12. The way a number is written with numerals.

13. A close guess made using mathematical thinking.

14. The result of subtraction.

Down

2. A symbol used to compare two numbers when the first is greater than the second.
3. The way a number is written to show the place value of each digit.
4. To compose or decompose ones, tens, or hundreds.

5. Decide if one number is greater than, less than, or equal to another number.

6. The value assigned to a digit based on its position in a number.

8. To give an approximate number or answer based on mathematical thinking.

9. To approximate the value of a number by finding to the nearest ten, hundred, or other place value.

11. The result of addition.