

Unit 1 forensic crossword

Across

1. a way to collect DNA from the cells on the inside of a persons cheek
2. a person who sees an event take place
3. The branch of science concerned with the nature, effects, and detection of poisons
7. the available body of facts or information indicating whether a belief or proposition is true or valid
10. any material items that are present at the crime scene or on the victims
11. mental illness
12. The second stage of death, the change in body temp after death
17. the chronological documentation or paper trail that records the sequence of custody, transfer, analysis and disposition of physical or electronic evidence
18. analyzes evidence
19. Scientific laboratories that examine physical evidence in criminal cases
24. stiffening of the joints and muscles of a body a few hours after death

23. the study of human societies and cultures and their development

24. the rule that states that one must first determine the probability of each characteristic occurring separately, then multiply together the frequencies of all the independently occurring characteristics

25. uncontaminated surface material close to an area where physical evidence has been deposited

26. the action or process of identifying someone or something or the fact of being identified

27. the application of science to criminal and civil laws

28. an impression, model, or reenactment of a past event formed from the available evidence

29. Material of a documented source which, when compared with evidence of an unknown source, shows an association or linkage between an offender, crime scene, and/or victim

Down

4. narrow down the evidence to a single, individual source

5. the act or instance of comparing

6. The quality of being acceptable or valid

8. characteristics that are not unique to a particular object but place the particular evidence into a group of objects

9. a method of procedure that has characterized natural science consisting in systematic observation measurement, and experiment, and the formulation, testing, and modification of hypotheses

13. a precise rendering of the crime scene, usually drawn to scale

14. A person who is permitted to testify at a trial because of special knowledge or proficiency in a particular field that is relevant to the case

15. the scientific study of the structure and diseases of the teeth

16. a draft representation and measurements, and is drawn at the crime scene

20. A post mortem examination to discover the cause of death or extent of disease

22. hypostasis of the blood following death that causes a purplish red discoloration of the skin