

Unit 1 vocabulary

Across

10. A fundamental, primary, or general law or truth from which others are derived.
 11. People are the source of any and all government power.
 13. Government and those who govern are bound by the law, as are those who are governed.
 14. The document that established the structure of the United States government and helped provide individual rights.
 16. An introductory statement.
 17. The document that declared that we were not part of England and had rights.

Down

1. A declaration of rights made by the representatives of the good people of Virginia, assembled in full and free convention; which rights do pertain to them and their posterity, as the basis and foundation of government.
 2. States that the Jamestown settlers had the same rights as the people living in England.
 3. Gives civil liberties to Virginia citizens once broken away from Britain.
 4. The charter agreed to by King John saying that all people must obey the law (including the king).
 5. The original constitution of the US, ratified in 1781, which was replaced by the US Constitution in 1789.

6. The political direction and control exercised over the actions of the members, citizens, or inhabitants of communities, societies, and states; direction of the affairs of a state, community, etc.
 7. People elect public office holders to make laws and conduct government for them.
 8. The original constitution of the US, ratified in 1781, which was replaced by the US Constitution in 1789.
 9. The people rule
 12. Government isn't all powerful and may only do the things people have given it power to do.
 15. To alter, modify, rephrase, or add to or subtract from by formal procedure.