

Unit 2 Animal Science

Across

- 2. Computerizing the production records for your hog farm is an example of Supervised Agricultural Experience
- 5. Items that have a useful life of more than one year
- 7. Which type of Supervised Agricultural Experience is observing and assisting a poultry farmer so that the student will gain awareness of possible careers

- 9. Which type of Supervised Agricultural Experience would require a written Training Agreement signed by the student, parent or guardian, teacher and employer or supervisor
- 10. performing one specific agricultural skill outside of normal class time
- 11. The purpose of an SAE project is to
- 12. something tangible of value that a person owns.

Down

- 1. Items quickly converted to cash or that will be sold within 12 months
- 3. Total assets minus Total liabilities
- 4. Debts not due this year
- 6. Which type of Supervised Agricultural Experience would require the student to make entries under the headings of "Type of Enterprise" and "Efficiency Factors"
- 8. What type of Supervised Agricultural Experience uses the scientific process to discover new knowledge