

Unit 2 Crossword Puzzle

Across

- 2. a writer's unique use of language that allows a reader to perceive a human personality in his or her writing.
3. the narrator is not a character in the story (s/he, they)
5. the symbolic meaning of the words in a text
10. the character or force in conflict with the main character
11. the narrator speaks directly to the reader (you)
14. clearly stated or shown
16. the formal or dictionary definition of a word
17. implied, not stated directly
20. what the words in a text say without interpretation
21. the perspective from which the story is being told

- 22. the narrator knows everything about the characters and their problems
23. the author's way of considering the topic of the text; it can be influenced by factors such as bias and social context

Down

- 1. important information that tells more about the overall idea of a paragraph or section of a text
4. the narrator is a character in the story. (I, me, we)
6. a type of metaphor in which the figurative meaning is developed through multiple lines/stanzas (poetry) or sentences/paragraphs (prose)
7. the author's word choice, sentence structure, figurative language, and sentence arrangement all work together to establish mood, images, and meaning in the text

- 8. the vibe or feelings associated with a word
9. the actions, dialogue, and narrative description that reveal a sense of a character's personality to the reader.
12. the problem or struggle between a character and someone or something outside of the character
13. the struggle occurring within a character's mind
15. a novel or short story about the moral or psychological growth (coming of age) of the main character
18. provable information
19. a short and amusing or interesting story about a real life incident or person