

Name: _____

Date: _____

Unit 3 Participation In Government

Across

3. What is the Basic Beliefs about the government.

6. when several parties combines forces to obtain a majority they form.

8. A US political party that is not the Democrats or Republicans.

12. The release of secret information.

13. Voters who are in the middle of the political spectrum are called.

14. More Votes than any other candidates.

15. Many business and labor interest groups are concerned with issues regarding.

16. Private meeting of party members.

17. The stand the government takes about a problem or an idea for improvement.

19. The drawing of districts to either minimize or maximize the power of minority voters.

20. What are exit polls used to predict.

Down

1. Giving favors to reward party loyalty is called.

2. This is a way of measuring public opinion.

4. This is a second primary election between two candidates with the most votes.

5. Organization of people who share similar ideas about the way the country should be governed.

7. This involves the news media in questioning of high-level officials.

9. This is a party's statement of principles, beliefs, and positions on vital issues.

10. communicating information to the general public.

11. What is it called when you are presenting a bias point of view.

18. Most interest groups try to influence government through.