

Unit 3 Reading 4: Languages in Contact

Across

2. E-mail is method of contact for keeping relationships with distant friends and family.

4. The international congress about disabilities in children have more conversational activities and new researchs from important universities that are utility.

9. In order to pay high debts of credit cards, we must keep working extra hours because we want to maintain our savings account with a good balance.

13. The city of Tampa has made gradual improvement on the Lee Roy Selmon Expressway, after the Government of Florida approved the investment in building new bridges

15. Learning more than one language is a path to being prosperous in a foreign country.

16. The doctor said to the patient if you do not cease smoking, your chronic obstructive pulmonary disease will get worse.

17. My grandfather is 80 years old, is very vigorous, and wakes up every day to do exercise.

18. The United States has residents from all over the world, but many of them are undocumented.

19. The half time of Super Bowl was one of the most vibrant shows that we have ever seen before.

20. The Colombia agricultural sector currently faces a complex situation, before which it is necessary for the national government to take a series of urgent measures.

21. Although, the signal of prohibited smoking are clear. Some employees do not understand the policy of no smoking in the building.

23. The congress spent a long time with the new migration law about dreamers that eventually president Trump will make final decision on in next months.

25. Children who grow up in bilingual environments get jobs easily due to advantageous skills in dual languages

Down

1. The professor said to the students" that essay about a person you admire needs to be finished at midnight, so you must hasten to be done as soon possible to get a good grade

3. In The last Super Bowl, the Patriot's team lost ground to the opposite team in their quest for the trophy, so the final score gave a surprising score to the Philadelphia Eagles team.

5. Working in an environment in wich the target language is spoken accelerates the learnig of this language.

6. My personal trainer is a perfect image of health and vitality, so I am trying hard to follow her directions.

7. Maria had to suppress the habit of smoking because her lungs do not work well.

8. The Ugandan dictator, Idi Amin, wanted ti make Swahili thw official language of that country rather than English.

10. Research from the Organization World Health shows that good health habits, and lack of stress contribute to longevity in people.

11. The Salvador Dali museum exhibits a range of paintings of the artist who worked outside of Europe.

12. In the United States, the religions Christianity, Islam, and Hinduism have coexisted for many years because the first amendment of the constitution establishes freedom of religion.

14. The Red Cross administered aid to survivors of hurricane Maria in Puerto Rico such as food, medical services, and mental health

22. Our sons' education is of paramount importance to us because we want to see them be successful.

24. Most of The residents in developed countries are literate because the government has a great educational system