

Name: _____ Date: _____

Unit 3 Vocab Review

- | | |
|---|--------------------------------|
| 1. Politics that focus on the candidates, their particular issues, and character rather than party affiliation. | A. Leaks |
| 2. An electoral system where the party that receives at least one more vote than any other party will win the election. | B. Negative ad |
| 3. Representatives of each state who cast the final ballots that actually elect a president. | C. Conservative |
| 4. Voting for candidates of different parties for various offices in the same election. | D. Ticket-splitting |
| 5. Interest groups whose primary purpose is not electoral politics. | E. Candidate centered politics |
| 6. Advertising on behalf of a candidate that attacks the opponent's character or platform. | F. Agenda setting |
| 7. The process of forming the list of issues to be addressed by government. | G. Electoral College |
| 8. Information provided to a journalist that will not be released to the public. | H. Winner take all system |
| 9. A collection of people or organizations that tries to influence public policy. | I. Off the record |
| 10. One who favors limited government intervention, particularly in economic affairs. | J. 501(c) groups |
| 11. An intentional disclosure of secretive information. | K. Interest group |