

Unit 4

Across

2. Something grown for the purpose of selling it, not grown for one's personal use.

7. Largest desert in Africa.

8. Underground layer of water-bearing material from which groundwater can be extracted, using a well.

11. Large depression or area of land that is enclosed by higher land such as hills or mountains.

13. The deliberate killing of a large group of people.

14. The expansion of dry conditions to moist areas next to deserts.

16. A kind of music developed by poor Algerian children that has become a form of rebellion against Islamic fundamentalists, especially by women.

17. System of racial segregation in South Africa that ended formally in 1994.

18. This is a way to group people according to their appearance.

19. The phenomenon of upper and middle class whites moving out of cities and into suburbs.

20. Deposit of this along the banks of a river is due to erosion, making the land more fertile.

21. Devotion to the interests of a certain country and belief that it is better and more important than other countries.

Down

1. System where people use lineage to govern themselves.

3. The process of blending into a new culture.

4. Policy of separating a race, class, or other group from the rest of society.

5. Narrow band of grassland found along the southern edge of the main desert in Africa.

6. This supports wildlife and vegetation in the desert.

9. A disease affecting a large population over a wide geographic area.

10. Landform created in eastern Africa as the result of continental plates being pulled apart.

12. This is a way to group people according to what they have been taught.

15. If you were standing on top of a plateau and gazing down a steep slope, you would be viewing one of these.