

Name: _____

Unit 5 Vocab One

Across

- 2. cone-shaped hill or mountain formed when hot magma, solids, and gas erupt onto earths surface through a vent
- 5. largest layer of earths interior that lies above the outer core and is solid and yet flows freely
- 9. earths outermost layer that is thinnest under the oceans and thickest through the mountains and contains all features of earths surface
- 10. solid, innermost layer of earths interior that is the hottest part of earth and experiences the greatest amount of pressure
- 11. rigid layer of earth about 100 km thick, made of the crust and a part of the upper mantle

Down

- 1. These vocab words and defintions are in your science notebooks
- 3. movement of the ground that occurs when rocks inside earth pass their elastic limit, break suddenly, and experience elastic rebound
- 4. the outer layer of the earth about 6 miles (10 km) deep under the oceans
- 6. layer of earth that lies aboe the inner core and it is thought to be composed mostly of molten metal
- 7. air surrounding earth
- 8. the careful and responsible managment of something enturstred to ones care