

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Unit 6 Puzzle

Across

3. Opposite forces of nature that must be balanced to create harmony

5. A trade route connecting China to Central and Southwest Asia

11. A large group of people who travel together

12. A ruling family that holds power for many years

13. A set of beliefs about the world and how to live

14. A book containing the teachings of Confucius

15. The belief that dynasties had a natural right to rule

17. Animal bones or turtle shells with writing on them that were used to try to tell the future

18. Devotion of children to their parents

Down

1. A way of defining what makes up a family

2. Pictures that represent words or ideas

4. A system of people who work for the government

6. The belief that a country should have limited relationships with other countries

7. Philosophy that believed an orderly society was based on relationships between people

8. The belief that a strong leader and strong laws are needed for a safe, orderly society

9. A military ruler of a small state

10. A representative of the Emperor to help build relationships with other countries

16. A way of life based on a simple and natural existence