

Name: _____

Date: _____

Unit 6 Vocabulary

Across

10. Commander and chief of the Continental army during the American revolutionary war and the first U.S. president

Down

1. Four laws passed by Congress in 1798 that were said to protect the United States, but intended by the Federalist to crush opposition to war

2. Author of the Federalist papers and the first secretary of the treasury

3. Act passed by Congress that created three levels of the federal courts and defined their power and relationship to the state courts

4. A revolt by farmers in 1794 against an excuse tax on whiskey

5. A party that wanted a strong federal government and supported industry and trade

6. Author of declaration of independence, first secretary of the Treasury

7. A rebellion of French people against their kind in 1789

8. An action or decision that later serves as an example

9. Americans first vice president and the second U.S. president

11. A policy of not choosing sides in a dispute or war between other countries