

Unit 9

Across

2. A name given to individuals who illegally transported and sold alcoholic beverages during the time of Prohibition (1920s); see Eighteenth Amendment.
3. Financial assistance by the government to a person or private commercial enterprise
10. Adopted in 1919, this amendment made the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages an illegal act.
14. A period of high growth
15. pertaining to a city
16. Racial separation by legal statutes
17. President after the death of Warren G. Harding, in 1923. He left office in 1928, believing that government is best when it allows business to take care of itself.
18. the right or privilege of voting
19. The developments that affect people's lives, their culture, and daily way of life

20. Two Italian immigrants convicted of murder during a 1921 robbery to obtain funds for an alleged anarchist revolution. Although the evidence was inconclusive, Sacco and Vanzetti were found guilty and executed in 1927. In 1977, the Massachusetts governor cleared the two men

Down

1. The two periods of time, in the 1920s and 1950s, in which Americans feared the growth of communism. These suspicions led to tests of the civil liberties of people under the Constitution
4. Also known as the "Monkey Trial", this 1920s case pitted the forces of religious fundamentalism (and the literal meaning of the Bible) against the new age of thinking and materialism (studying biology through the theory of evolution established by Darwin)
5. Black writer of the Harlem Renaissance (1920's) who used jazz and blues themes and rhythms in his poetry. His work speaks to Black pride and the injustice/hurt of discrimination

6. Nickname for the decade of 1920s and 1950s, in which Americans feared the growth of communism. These suspicions led to tests of civil liberties of people under the Constitution
7. United States policy which favored the interests of native born inhabitants over those of immigrants
8. Behavior patterns, art, music, beliefs, institutions, and all other products of human work and thought characteristic of people in general
9. Black Americans exhibited great pride in their heritage and creative achievements during the 1920s and 1930s through music, literature, and art
11. Products made or grown by producers, and used by people (the consumers)
12. Black Jazz and blues artist of the Harlem Renaissance (1920's).
13. 1920's limits on immigration that favored northwestern European immigrants over those from southeastern Europe and Asia