

Unit Two Vocab

Across

1. the struggle occurring within a character's mind
4. the symbolic meaning of words in a text
6. the vibe or feeling associated with a word
9. something that represents an idea, a physical entity, or a process but is distinct from it
14. clearly stated or shown
18. the actions, dialogue, and narrative description that reveal a sense of a character's personality to the reader
20. the author's word choice, sentence structure, figurative language, and sentence arrangement all work together to establish mood, images, and meaning in the text
21. important information that tells more about the overall idea of a paragraph or section of a text
23. the dictionary definition of a word

25. the narrator is a character in the story

26. the narrator knows everything about the characters and their problems

Down

2. the perspective from which the story is being told
3. provable information
5. the character or force in conflict with the main character
7. a message or lesson developed within a piece of literature
8. the problem or struggle between a character and someone or something outside of the character
10. a type of metaphor in which the figurative meaning is developed through multiple lines/stanzas (poetry) or sentences/paragraphs (prose)
11. the narrator speaks directly to the reader

12. a novel or short story about the moral or psychological growth (coming of age) of the main character

13. the author's way of considering the topic of the text

15. a fact or piece of data from a study of a large quantity of numerical data

16. the central or main character in a work of literature

17. not stated directly

19. a writer's unique use of language that allows a reader to perceive a human personality in his or her writing.

22. a short and amusing story about a real life incident or person

24. the author's attitude towards his or her audience and subject