

Unit one vocabulary

Across

1. Denied black citizens equal opportunities and rights.
4. Henry Clay's idea to solve the issues with the extension of slavery in New Mexican territory.
8. Divided South into five districts.
11. Northerners coming to the South for business opportunities or to help freedmen. (Not a nice term)
15. Authorised the president to survey American Indian tribal land and divide it for individual Indians.
17. Slavery prohibited north of 36° 30'
18. White terrorism group.
19. Became known as "Bleeding Kansas" because of the blood shed.
22. Refers to Sherman's "March To The Sea."
23. Fictional book by Harriet Beecher Stowe that showed the horrors and evil side of slavery.

24. People have the right to decide (by voting) if slavery would be allowed in the territory they live in.

25. A slave suing for his freedom that lost because slaves and African Americans weren't considered citizens with rights.

26. An abolitionist's attempt to arm slaves and create an uprising.

27. All furthered African Americans' freedom and rights. Hint: there are three.

Down

2. Marked the end of Reconstruction.

3. Southern whites who supported Reconstruction.

5. Established by Lincoln to "preserve the union." Freed slaves in Confederate states, but not the border states.

6. Court case that reaffirmed the belief that "Seperate is Equal."

7. American welfare system that helped ex-slaves and poor whites with food, clothing, and education.

9. When the landowner provided land and tools, and the farmer had to pay with crops.

10. Guaranteed the rights of African Americans to own property and be treated equally in court.

12. Reaffirmed white supremacy through differential treatment.

13. Required that Northerners return any escaped slaves to their owners in the South.

14. Confederate attack on Union troops while they were low on supplies, which led to the Union's surrender.

16. Turning point of the war. After losing the battle, Confederate troops never try to invade the North again.

20. Union strategy developed by General Winfield Scott.

21. Interest in one's own well-being instead of the nation.